BEHIND THE SCREEN

Phyllis Haver as she looked at the height of her popularity as a bathing girl and, inset, a recent portrait.

EVER since she quit cutting capers in a bathing suit several years ago, Phyllis Haver, one of the best known of Mack Sennett's bathing troupe, has been marching along from one good role to another.

"Pulehitulua Phyllis," as she used to be called, decided the season's getting anywhere playing about in the ocean, so she left her little playmates at the seashore and struck out into "dramas."

Since that momentous decision Phyllis has played in "The Nervous Wreck," "Up in Mabel's Room," "What Price Glory," "Nobody's Widow," "No Control" and "The Little Adventurers."

She's now working at the Metro-politan Studios in Emil Danning's first American made picture, "The Way of All Flesh," and that organization has just given her a new long term contract.

Tris Gray, one of the most promising graduates of Paramount's picture school, has decided to desert the movies temporarily at least. She recently married Frank Lynch, vaudevillian.

"Wings" Paramount's epic of the air, is to be dedicated to those fliers who lost their lives in the World War.

No Need to be Embarrassed by Catarrh

There is such humiliation in the offensive breath, catarrhal deafness, constant raising of mucus and other annoyances of catarrh, that no one willingly puts up with it any more.

Catarrh quickly disappears when you remove the cause—an inflamed condition of the mucous membranes of nose, throat and head. Reduce this inflammation and a healthy condition is restored.

Take this use Hall's Catarrh Medicine, effective for over 40 years. Ask your druggist. Price 35c. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Chapelle Bill

Columbus, Mar. 22.—"If the Ohio Legislature does not provide for election reforms, I hope the people will initiate measures to bring it about. I will lead such a movement all the aid and encouragement possible," declared Gov. Vic Donahey today.

The governor's statement relates to the Chapelle Bill, now in the hands of the senate elections committee, which seems to readily and revise Ohio's election laws, providing, among other things for biennial and quadrennial registration of voters, instead of annually, as at present.

The bill, introduced in the senate Jan. 18, last, was referred to the elections committee the following day, Jan. 19, where it has remained.

Members of the Ohio League of Women Voters, which, it was stated, was instrumental in having the bill introduced, threaten to take steps with a view to submitting it to a referendum at the statewide elections next November, if it is not passed at the present session.

A public hearing is scheduled to be held on the bill in the senate chamber Wednesday night. Supporters of the measure, it was announced, representing practically all the large cities of Ohio, will attend the hearing.

LOCAL SILK MILLS TO CLOSE DOWN 10 DAYS

Susquehanna Plant Will Suspend Operation To Adjust
Production Schedule

All plants of the Susquehanna Silk Mills Co., including the one located here, are to be closed from April 8 to 18 to give the company an opportunity to adjust its production schedule. W. E. Bartholomew, superintendent of the Marion mill, announced today. The Susquehanna company operates a chain of nine mills, the other eight being located in Pennsylvania.

The plan of closing down for one week has become necessary because of changed conditions in the silk industry. Mr. Bartholomew says. In former years it was possible to continue operations during dull periods and between seasons by keeping up the production of staples in both silks and satins. That, however, was before Dame Fashion's moods and requirements became so uncertain and changeable.

Now silk manufacturers find it extremely difficult to ascertain what changes in style are likely to take place and for that reason must exercise caution in planning advanced production.

The week's lay-off has been decided upon to enable the company to map out its schedule for next fall and to guard against over production.

The local plant now has a force of about 375 employees, which is slightly below the normal average.

Feel Stiff and Achy?

If You Would be Fit There Must Be Good
Elimination of the Blood Impurities.

TO feel constantly lame and achy is often indication of improper elimination. The kidneys are the blood filters. Sluggish function, however, permits retention of waste poisons and is apt to make one languid, tired and achy, with dull headaches, dizziness and often a nagging backache. A common symptom of imperfect kidney function is scanty or burning excretions.

Assist the kidneys at such times with a stimulant diuretic. Since 1885 Doan's Pills have been winning friends the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. Gust Green, 1933 E. Walnut St., Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I was miserable with backache and knew my kidneys weren't acting right, as the excretions were scanty and burned in passing. A friend recommended Doan's Pills and they helped me promptly. I have told hundreds about Doan's."

Carl W. Bartz, 526 Pine St., Owosso, Mich., says: "I had reason to believe my kidneys weren't acting right because the secretions didn't pass often enough. Headaches were annoying. I was tired and without ambition and was bothered by a nagging backache. I tried Doan's Pills and they were prompt in helping me. It wasn't long before I felt like myself again."

It is only honest to abide by that request myself."

Braves Relying On Youth For Speed; Thomas and Richbourg Looming Big

BY NORMAN E. BROWN

St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 22—"We want more speed this year—in the field and on the bases," says Dave Richbourg, manager of the Boston Braves, in discussing his team's prospects for the year.

And he is pinning his hopes for more speed mainly on three men. There are Lane Richbourg, young outfielder from Thomas hit 326 in the Eastern League and stole 55 bases. His hitting was fair.

I saw Richbourg and Thomas in action in an exhibition game. Richbourg in particular impressed me with his speed. He legged it around the bases on a long hit in the sixth and made beautiful time getting down to first when he sacrificed. He ran, I over-counting much on Art Mills and Herman Helmsouer. Both are right-handers. Mills worked with the Cubs field and Providence slugs last season and won 11 and lost 16 games. The Pittsburgh team was a railroad outfit as far as batting was concerned and failed to give Mills and Helmsouer much of a challenge in the South Atlantic League.

THOMAS RICHBOURG MOORE

Milwaukee; Herbert Thomas, young infielder from the Providence club, and Eddie Moore, obtained from the Pittsburgh Pirates last season.

Richbourg seems ready right now to hold an outfield berth regularly. Thomas has been placed at second, replacing Moore. The latter has been shifted to third, relieving Andy High, a diligent veteran with little speed.

Richbourg was bought from Milwaukee after a great year there. He hit 216 and 69 of his base hits were stretched to extra bases. He stole 18 bases, leading the league in that department. There are at least two concrete exhibits of his speed on the bases at least. His fielding was not as clean as it might be but he covered a lot of ground.

Thomas played around well, landing one had moment.

He too, showed speed on the paths. Moore, in addition to increasing the speed of the infield, should be a better defense man at third. He played a brilliant game there the day I watched him. Taking into consideration the fact that spectacular stunts in the spring don't go in the record books I think his work is worth comment. He stopped one line hit over the bag by leaping after it and turning it somersault into the catcher's box afterward. He went to his left for another hard ball and fielded it perfectly.

Outside of seeking more speed than any other pitcher, the Braves

Wins Finals of Table Tennis Tourney at Y. M. C. A.; Another Planned

Bob Cram won the second table tennis tournament of the season at the Y. M. C. A. last night by defeating Kennedy in the finals. It was the second time this season that Cram has been crowned leader among the tennis players and is the second time that he has defeated Kennedy in the finals of a match.

The finals last night were the most interesting seen this year. Cram won the first set 6-1 and took the second 4-1. The third went to Kennedy by 9-7 score, and Cram took the fourth after a tough struggle. The final score of the fourth set was 10-8.

A junior tennis tourney will be under way at the Y. M. C. A. this week. Eddie Irwin of the boys' department of the "Y" announced today, following this tournament, Eddie and his boys' work secretary, will challenge the winners of both tournaments for the championship of the boys.

Great interest is being shown in the junior tourney and it is believed the competition will be even keener next week than it was during the last week when the free-for-all was being held.

Eight Juvenile Pugilists Wear Championship Crowns Following Cincinnati Tourney

Cincinnati, Mar. 22—Eight juvenile pugilists today applied plenty of bandage to sore muscles and departed for their homes wearing the championship crowns of their respective classes which were handed out here last night when the final bouts of the A. A. U. National junior boxing tourney were over.

This youthful slugging from New York ran rather rampant through their opponents last night, and today three boys from that city were carrying home as many championships.

The Junior amateurs who headed their charges today were: Flyweight—Fengy Saenger, Cleveland; Bantamweight—Eddie Law, Philadelphia; Featherweight—Tommy Shay, Cincinnati; Lightweight—Peter Caesar, New York; Welterweight—Johnny McTiernan, Pittsburgh; Middleweight—Joe Hanlon, New York; Light Heavyweight—William O'Morisson, New York; Heavyweight—Dave Kneet, St. Louis.

Freedom is relative; and it ideal always seems more than we now possess.

VACCA BEATS BARBA

La Barba's Title Not at Stake in Match with Boston Sensation

Boston, Mass., Mar. 22—John Vacca, Boston's latest field sensation, today seized $1,000 into his mother's lap. P. A.

-the password to pipe-pleasure

GIVE the sign to the man behind the counter and he will hand you a tin of the grandest tobacco that ever smuggled in the bowl of a pipe. Throw back the lid and revel in that tantalizing aroma of real tobacco. Load up and light up. There you have it!

That is Prince Albert, Gentlemen—smoked by more men than any other pipe-brand. This overwhelming preference didn't "just happen." It exists for the single reason that P. A. brings more deep-down, solid satisfaction out of a pipe than any diet you could put it on.

The very first pull will tell you that Prince Albert is unlike any other tobacco. Notice how cool it smokes, no matter how wide you open the throttle. Notice, too, that it doesn't bite the tongue or parch the throat, no matter how often you fill-up and pull-in.

You may think you are all set on a smoke-program. Fair enough. But don't let that interfere with your getting a first-hand knowledge of what P. A. offers in real pipe-pleasure. Where there's so much P. A. smoke, there must be the fire of truth. Try it and see!

PRINCE ALBERT

—the national joy smoke!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Midland Mutuals Defeat Buicks in Three Bowling Contests; Motorcycles Win

Determined Mutual Rollers Pile Up Points Against Buick Crew and Further Threaten Bradley Drugs for Lead in National League.

Midland Mutuals showed their determination to fight to the finish in the National Bowling League last night when they took the Motorcycles under for three games in a regular match on the Y.M.C.A. alleys. Their total pins were 1,446 while the Buicks totaled only 1,226.

Motorcycles also continued to show on leaders of the league by defeating Buicks in two out of three games, leaving only the second contest of the night by a margin of 12 pins.

With the National League season rapidly drawing to a close, rivalry is becoming more and more evident in the race for the title. At least four teams have a chance to get the banner with the Bradley Drugs sitting on top of the heap at present. Mutuals are rushing the league leaders.

Thomas led the Midland crew last night with 230 pins in the second game of the night and 200 in the third. He was followed by Williams with 171 pins.

CORN BORER FIGHT TO START NEAR MT. GILEAD

Mt. Gilead, Mar. 22.—Work for the prevention and extermination of the European corn borer will be started early this week. The present officials met Saturday night in the farm bureau office and selected an inspector and six supervisors from a list of Morrow County men. T. H. Parks, extension entomologist from the Ohio State University, is coming next Wednesday to help plan a course of action. Another office girl will be employed in the farm bureau office during the intensive work against the corn borer.

PROSPECT SOPHOMORES SURPRISE CLASS MEMBER

Prospect, Mar. 22.—The sophomore class of the Prospect High School surprised Donald Hodge Friday night, Mar. 18, at his home one mile below town, the occasion being his birthday. The time was spent with games and music, the St. Patrick idea being carried out in the entertainment. Mrs. Hodge served refreshments of ice cream and cake. Donald was presented with a fine ever-lasting pencil. Those present were Doris Faulkner, Elizabeth Berry, Dorothy Swan, Willa Hodge, Lucile Hodge, Miss Elizabeth Beam, Florence Lowery, Herschel Hocker, Robert Solomon, Paul Farrington, Sumner Retter, Ivan Hodge and Mr. R. L. Albright.

Sir Isaac Newton, the great scientist, whose memory is about to be honored in England on the 200th anniversary of his death, remained a bachelor throughout his life of 85 years.

SUPPOSE YOU WERE A MIND READER

And know just what was going on in your friend's mind when you asked him for a little timely financial assistance; or could fathom your uncle's innermost thoughts when you suggested to him that he just sign a note for you for ninety days; or if you guessed why that glint came to the eyes of the boss, and he greeted his teeth softly when you wanted your money again a week before it was earned—then there would be no difficulty in convincing you that the proper place for you to borrow your money is the Marion Chattel Loan Company, Ltd. 8 State st.

There is a real place for you, where the money is always waiting and where the obligation ends the minute the last dollar is paid. No lad after effects, that makes borrowing from individuals or putting yourself under obligation to others so distasteful.—Adv.

Jubilee's Pardner

A Story of Boyhood Adventures

BY JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

and mistle all night, most got to the door, my grandfather was sitting in the kitchen, watching my mother, frying pancakes, opened the door to spit, and the snowball must of hit him just as he was going to let go, because he coughed and strangled till my mother had to pound him on the back, and he coughed so hard and she hit him so hard that his false teeth flew out and made a hole in the snow.

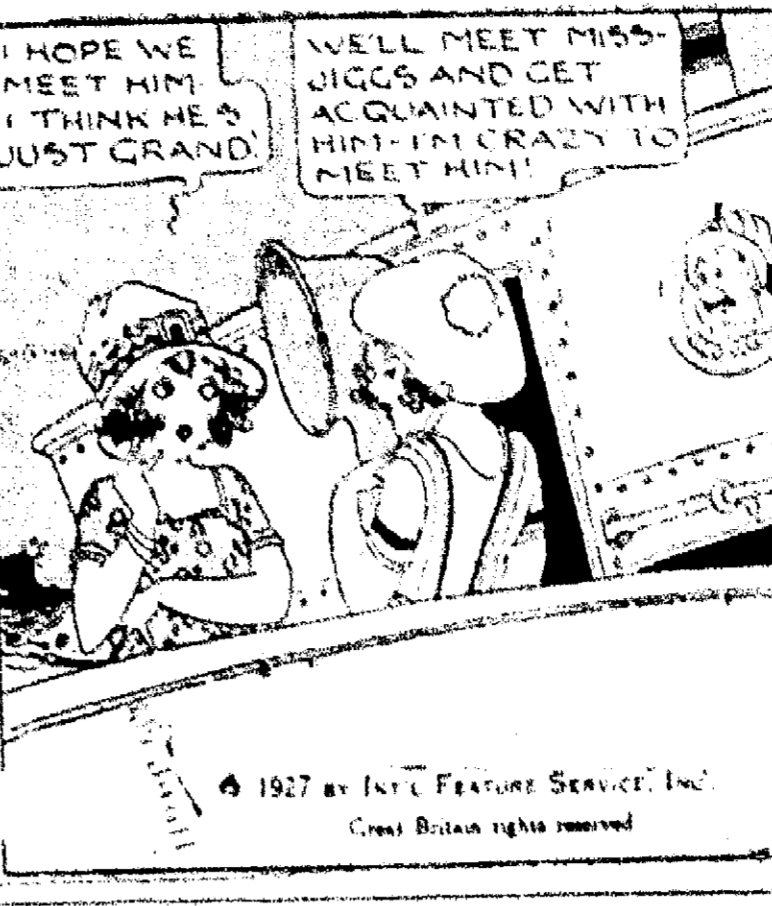

The snowball must of hit him

I got the teeth out of the snow and I was scared and thinking about a thousand things at once and wishing I could run away and hide, and I snuck in with the milk pail, and was sure I was going to get a licking and my grandfather's face and whiskers and hair were dripping wet, and my father and aunt and uncle had come out and were crowding around him, and he put his teeth in so he could talk, and he said, "I never had such a seizure." My mother said, "I thought you were going to strangle. Let me get a towel. You are simply dripping with cold sweat." So she dried him with the towel, and my uncle and father took hold of his arms and helped him to the couch in the other room, and he laid down, and Jubilee had snuck in and was the only one that seen him, and when we began eating peas and pancakes and bacon, my grandfather said, "By golly, I'm not dead yet!" and jumped up and sat down to the table, and my aunt said some people are dead and don't know it.

I slipped Jubilee quite a lot of pancakes, and when I got up to go out to the bunch he came sneaking along behind me, and my mother asked me if I let him in, and I said he must of snuck in when the snowball had al-

Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

Once upon a time, as Uncle Wiggily was logging through the woods, holding his pink nose in front of him, he heard a small, soft, tinkling sound. He looked around, but saw nothing. He went on, and after a while he heard a noise as if some one were beating a carpet.

"What are you doing, Whoopee?" asked Uncle Wiggily. Whoopee was a little rabbit boy, and he was always shouting and whooping. "Why aren't you logging on to school, Whoopee?" his father asked. "You may be late." "I'm going to hop right along now, Daddies," answered Whoopee. "I just want to finish this whistle."

"Whistle?" cried Uncle Wiggily. "Are you making a whistle, Whoopee?" "I'm trying to," answered the little rabbit boy. "But I'm not having very good luck. Maybe you'll help me," and he held out a stick which he had been tapping with his knife blade, thus making the noise.

"Oh, my dear Whoopee!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily, who was also a father to the little rabbit boy. "You have the wrong kind of a stick from which to make a whistle. A willow stick is just what you need. The bark on an oak stick is too tight to come off easily, which is what you need when you make a whistle. I'll show you."

Uncle Wiggily cut a willow stick from the bank of the brook and soon whistled it in the shape of a whistle. Then, by gently tapping the bark all around the stick he caused the bark to slip off in one round piece, as if you cut taken off your glove.

With a little more cutting of the white wood under the bark, making holes for the air to get in and out, Whoopee's whistle was soon finished, and given to the little rabbit boy.

"Thank you, Daddies," he cried happily.

"You are quite welcome," answered Mr. Longears. "And now you must hop to school as fast as you can or you'll be late."

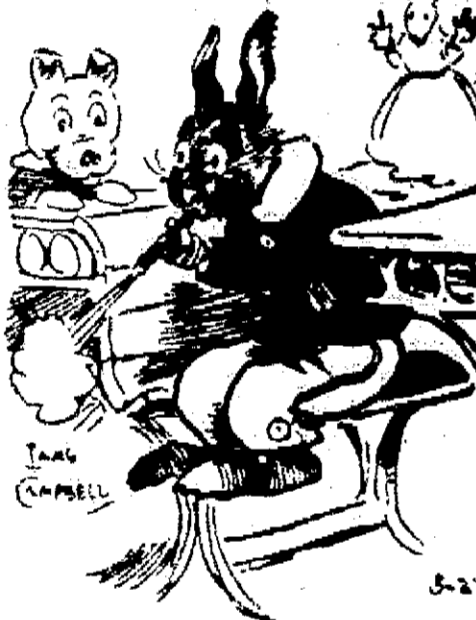

"Can't I wait and try my new whistle?" begged Whoopee.

"No! Hop to school!" ordered Uncle Wiggily, so Whoopee hopped.

"I'll put trail along behind him after a while, to see that he gets to the Holbrook School in time," said Uncle Wiggily to himself.

The rabbit gentleman hopped along, thinking his pink nose. Whoopee got to school just as the last bell was ringing, and fairly slid into his seat. Something stuck out of his pocket.

"What's that?" whispered Jackie Bow.

He blew a shrill blast on it.

Don't whistle for the Police Dog!" howled the Fox, and away he ran, bumping into and upsetting Uncle Wiggily in front of the school, but not hurting the bunny gentleman.

"Oh ho! I see what happened!" said Mr. Longears. When the excitement was over, "The Fox was hiding in the closet to bite some one. And when Whoopee blew his whistle, the Fox thought the Police Dog was coming. So the Fox ran out!"

"I'm glad he did!" squeaked the Lady Mouse. "And I will forgive Whoopee for blowing his whistle in school." So everything was all right, and if the sugar spoon doesn't skim the top off the chocolate cake to make mud for the peach pie, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the last scene.

To be "born tired" is a mere figure of speech. The dynamo in some people—the vitality—are feeble. Have a heart.

Today in Marion Markets Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

Market supplies were light on fresh vegetables today, and prices held steady as trade was light, weather conditions affecting shipping to some extent.
 There were practically no strawberries to be had, as the week-end buying cleaned out stocks and new supplies have not been received. Lettuce was also light on the market, both head and leaf varieties being scarce.
 Maple syrup is moving slowly in local stores, but the demand is not strong. The price of $2.25 a gallon cuts the demand except for those who can afford it. Not a great deal of syrup is being offered here.
 Eggs continue to sell for around 20 cents a dozen, with a few stores getting slightly higher prices for graded fresh eggs. The demand for eggs is getting low, buyers taking all that are offered with the low price. Eggs are expected to take an upward swing within the next few weeks.

FIRE PICTURE STARTS WEEK'S RUN AT MARION

Theater Filled at Special Matinee Showing for School Children

"The Fire Brigade," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer motion picture, to be shown at the Marion Theater all of this week under joint auspices of the local fire department and the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

Charge of arrangements started today. The children's matinee, given at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was especially popular, the entire seating capacity of the theater being filled by youngsters from the local schools.

Robert Swisher, a member of the local fire department who was formerly a balladist with Vogel's Minstrels, sang in connection with the four programs yesterday and will be heard at each presentation of the picture during the remainder of the week.

Ten per cent of the gross receipts for the week will go to the local firemen's indemnity fund and a substantial percentage will also be contributed to a nationwide fire prevention campaign to be conducted by the International Association of Fire Chiefs.
